FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Cavalry Battle at Middlebarg - Movement of the Confederate Army Discovered-Gen. Lee Advancing upon the Army of the Petemac.

WASHINGTON, June 19 .- Associated Press Dispatch. |- From a statement of Col. Dame, it appears that on Wednesday afternoon, when Gen. Gregg had carried the stonewall near Aldie, and driven the rebel cavalry toward Sniekersville, he was ordered to proceed to Middleburg and hold that point. His regiment went into the engagement with 333 men and 24

On arriving at Middleburg he was informed by ladies that a force of rebel cavalry, greatly outnumbering his own, were encamped around the town. This was evidenced by the fact that he had dispersed a brigade who opposed his entrance, and were then making demonstrations upon him from another point. He was also told that the whole of Stuart's force were in the vicinity, but that Gen. Stnurt himself had just lett by another route to reinforce Gen. Lee, who was then falling back from Aldie. Determined to carry out his instructions, he sent back messungers to Aldie asking for reinforcements. In the meantime the rebels in force attacked Duttle at several different points. Finding himself overpowered by superior numbers and surrounded on every side, he attempted to cut his way back to Aidie, but failing in effecting this. he turned towards Thoroughfare Gap and proceeded several miles when he ascertained that the Gap was held by Gen. Ewell, commanding the grand center of Lee's army, and that Gen. Lee was thereabout in person. Cel. Dufile then deployed to the left, crossed the mountain at Hope Gap, and by a tortuous route succeed. ed in reaching our outposts.

Among the missing officers of his command are Lieut. Col. Thompson, Major Farmington, Capts, Shortliff, Bliss, Rogers, Allen, Charles Gould and Wyman, Adjutant Parker, Surgeon Maun, Lieuts. Shurtleff, Chadell, Peterson, Brown, Prenties, Parker and Ellis. It is possible that many of the missing may have es-caped and found their way to Gen. Gregg's command by other routes.

This reconnoissance of our cavalry has solved the mystery of the present location of Lee and Ewell. From this source it is also secertained that Longstreet was on Wednesday at Union, Loudon county, in Bull Run Valley. Advices from below say that A. P. Hill's advance guard, consisting of Hampton's Legion, was advancing toward Dumfries; and that one regiment had made its appearance at Stafford ort Honse. Combining these facts, intelligent officers draw the conclusion that Lee is advancing upon the Army of the Potomac in three columns, his right under Gen. Hill, by way of Occoquan and Wolf Run Shoale; his centre, under Gen. Ewell, by way of Thoroughfare Gap, and his left, under Gen. Longstreet, by way of Leesburg. In this connection, it is only necessary to say that such a disposition has been made of our army by Gen. Hooker, that no surprise can possibly take place. The families of officers who were visiting the field are returning hither to-day, and there are other indications of an approaching conflict. A few hours will probably develop further movements and intentions of Gen. Lee's forces, which are now said to be 90,000 strong. Scattering reports of guns were heard in the direction of Aldie yesterday, and were renewed at intervals this morning. Nothing is as yet heard of the result.

Resistance to the Enrollment in the West, CINCINNATI, June 19 .- An enrolling officer in Econe county, Indiana, was captured by several persons on Monday. The men held him while the women pelted him with eggs. Fourteen of the most active partisans were arrested. Fletcher Freeman, the enrolling officer of Sullivan county, Indiana, was shot dead yesterday while riding through the country. CLEVELAND, June 29.-Troops have been sent to Holmes county, of this State, to break up an organization to resist the enrollment. They arrived at the scene of disturbance on Wednesday. As the troops advanced a number of shots were fired by the insurgents without effect, when the soldiers, under Col Wallace, fired a volley and charged bayonets. Eight prisoners were taken, and two slightly wound-

The number of insurgents is reported to be five or six bundred, chiefly armed with shotguns. They are now roaming about the woods without leaders or concert of action. They relied on reinforcements from the surrounding country, but were generally disappointed. The military commander gave notice that the troops would remain quiet Thursday, and give the insurrectionists an opportunity to surrender the originators of the movement and disperse. If this is not done by Friday morning, severe measures will be taken. Another report states that four soldiers and ten Vallandigham democrats were killed and wounded, and reinforcements have been sent for by the commander of the Union forces. This report is considered an exaggaration.

That while this continues the permanent secession of North Carolina and Virginia cannot be ex-

The Unionists in Eastern Tennessee and Western North Carolina have organized powerful forces, joined by thousand of deserters and conscripts from the rebel army, to whom protection is guaranteed, for the purpose of holding the mountain region against the rebel government.

Rebel citizens have petitioned Gov. Vanca for protection against this organization. Vance replies that he has no troops to send; they must protect themselves. Twenty thousand insurgents have openly offered to join the Union troops as soon as a post is opened at Raleigh.

Resisting the Draft.

WEST CORNWALL, Ct., June 16 .- A company of men have established themselves in Goshen. Ot., who are reported to be deserters from the army, together with some disloval men in that vicinity. General Magruder would leave in a few days, as the critical situation of affairs in Louisiana demanded his presence. The editor adds that Banks will soon meet the fighting men of the Department of Texas.

Sr. Louis, June 19.—The Democrat has a special dispatch from Vicksburg, dated at two o'clock last Saturday morning. Our approaches from Sherman's corps were pushed to the rebel rifle-pits, and to within twenty yards of one of their bastions. The rebels threw lighted shells over the parapets on our approaches, and received in return twenty-three hand grenades, twenty of which exploded, driving the rebels

On Friday, the rebels cut away the timber in the rear of their lines and opened on us with an eleven-inch shell and two or three siege guns.
